

2021

Police & Peace Officers'
Memorial Service

(Prince Edward Island)

“They Are Our Heroes, We Shall Not Forget Them.”

Trinity United Church, Summerside, PEI

Sunday, September 26th, 2021 @ 2:00 PM

Final Preparation Before the Service

Trinity United Senior Choir Directed by Louise Elder

Wreath Holders Await the Remembrance

L.G. Antoinette Perry Arrives to Greet Veterans

A Generational Attendance – The MacLean Family

Master of Ceremonies, Les Chipperfield, guides the Memorial Service.

The Colour Party

Under the command of S/Sgt. Beryl Lewis, RCMP "L" Division, Csts. Lorenz Saunders and Steve Monkley, RCMP "L" Division; along with Cpl. Dale Corish, Summerside Police Service march in the Colours.

Arrival of L.G.

The Lieutenant Governor of Prince Edward Island, the Honourable Antoinette Perry, is escorted by Lt. Commander Cindy Gault.

The Memorial Service was attended by 100 People, the largest in some time.

Words of Welcome from the Royal Family

Words of Welcome from MP Robert Morrissey, Government of Canada

Words of Welcome
from
The Hon. Bloyce Thompson,
MLA / Minister of Justice,
Government of Prince Edward Island

The Mayor of Summerside
His Worship, Basil Stewart

Words of Welcome

President of the PEI Chiefs of Police and
Commanding Officer,
RCMP "L" Division,
C/Supt. Jennifer Ebert

Rev. Rachel Campbell,
Pastor of Trinity United Church, offers words of welcome and the Opening
Prayer of the 2021 Police &
Peace Officers' Memorial Service.

Ernie MacAulay, RCMPVA (PEI),
Reading from the Book of Wisdom

Cpl. Bob Campbell,
Kensington Police
Service, Reading Psalm 23

Phil Pitts, RCMPVA (PEI), a Gospel Reading from John

Anne O'Shaugnessey,
RCMPVA (PEI),
A Prayer for Families and Friends

Cst. Dale Johnston,
Charlottetown Police Service,
a Peace Officers' Prayer

An Act of Remembrance

Reading the Names of the Fallen

M.C. Les Chipperfield reads the Names of the Fallen in 2021

Cpl. Ashley (MacKenzie) Davis, Summerside Police Service reads Names of the Fallen from Years Gone By.

Cadet Cain Power, Atlantic Police Academy (Conservation) reads the Names of the Fallen from Years Gone By.

Park Warden Lori Anne Duffy reads the names of the Parks Canada Fallen from years gone by.

Cst. Jonah MacDougall,
Kensington Police Service reads the names of the Fallen from Years Gone By.

Supt. Kevin Lewis, RCMP
"L" Division reads the Names of the Fallen from Years Gone By.

*An Act of Remembrance
Laying of the Wreaths*

“The Last Post” is played by Bugler Cathy MacDonald and Piper Nick VanOuwkerk.

The Hon. Antoinette Perry

On Behalf of the Royal Family,
The Lieutenant Governor of
Prince Edward Island

Robert Morrissey, MP for Egmont
On behalf of the Government of Canada

The Hon. Bloyce Thompson, Minister of Justice / MLA
On Behalf of the Province of Prince Edward Island

His Worship, Mayor Basil Stewart
On behalf of the City of Summerside

C/Supt. Jennifer Ebert,
Commanding Officer,
RCMP "L" Division.

On behalf of the PEI Chiefs of Police

Cpl. Tim Keizer,
Charlottetown Police
Services

On behalf of the Police Association of
Prince Edward Island

“They Are Our Heroes, We Shall Not Forget Them”

Chaplain Judy Parsons, RCMPVA (PEI) Offers the Benediction

The Service Concludes with the Retirement of the Colours

Thanks to the Association of Chiefs of Police, the Police Association, and the Ministry of Justice and Public Safety, all of Province of Prince Edward Island.

Thanks to Rev. Campbell, The Senior Choir and Director Elder, and the many friends and families who supported the Memorial Service.

Special thanks to Syntrac Print and Graphics Inc.